Per IRC Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3), to pass the facts and circumstances test, and therefore be considered publicly supported, an organization must meet the ten-percent support limitation and attract public support while taking into account all other pertinant facts and circumstances.

The Organization has consistently met the 10% support limitation found in IRC Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3)(i). The percentage of public support has never been below 30% since its inception. IRC Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3)(iii)(A) states that the higher the percentage of public support above the 10% minimum, the lower the burden of establishing a publicly supported nature.

The Organization also meets the attraction of public support requirement found in IRC Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3)(ii). The requirement is met because the Organization does solicit donations from the public on a regular basis, and applies for grants. The regulation also states that a young organization, "may limit the scope of its solicitation to persons deemed most likely to provide seed money in an amount sufficient to enable it to commence its charitable activities." The Organization was created only five years ago and provides a vast number of programs to the people of Ethiopia. To this point the Organization has received significant contributions from a few individuals in order to commence operations. In future years, the Organization expects to receive less from these individuals and rely more heavily on contributions from the general public.

Despite not meeting the 33 and 1/3% test in its sixth year of existence, the Organization meets the definition of an IRC Sec. 170(b)(1)(A) organization becuase it passes the facts and circumstances test of IRC Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3). The Organization passes the test because it has consistently received much more than 10% of its support from the public and it continues necessary solicitation practices in an effort to gain support from the public.
